Carol Bellamy Guest Speaker Sept. 20 At Sisterhood Meeting

Carol Bellamy, President of the City Council, will be the featured speaker of the first Sisterhood Open Meeting of the fall season, Wednesday, September 20, at 1 P.M. in the Lemberg Auditorium.

Ms. Bellamy, the first woman to be elected to city-wide office, occupies the second highest post in city government. She has been called one of New York City's most accessible public officials. She meets regularly with constituents in her City Hall office and with civic groups throughout the 5 boroughs. Every Sunday she hosts a live call-in program on WMCA Radio from 10 - 11 A.M.

A Coffee Hour will follow a question-and-answer period.

Plan now to attend, what promises to be, a most unusual and thought provoking afternoon.

"Fancy Dress Ball" Set For December 2

Rosalie Friedman (Mrs. Sidney) and Frank Moroze, co-chairpeople, have dubbed the second annual dinner dance "The March of Progress Ball". To take place on Saturday, December 2, in the Main Ballroom of the Waldorf Astoria, this gala evening affair will assure a rosy glow to the festive holiday season.

A Journal will again be published, in conjunction with the Ball, which, it is expected, will raise the necessary funds to meet the synagogue's operational budget.

Give yourself a Hanukkah present and come to the Ball. It will be the party of the year!

Andrew Braun Assumes Post Of Executive Director

Andrew Braun assumed the position of Executive Director of Park Avenue Synagogue July 1. He succeeds Martin Leichtling, who has served our synagogue for thirty years, and who now assumes the responsibility of Secretary to the congregation. (A profile of Martin Leichtling can be found on page 5).

Mr. Braun, or "Andy" as he likes to be called, is a graduate of Case-Western Reserve University where he majored in English and Education. Following a career in retailing, he became a synagogue administrator in 1963 at Temple Beth Am in Cleveland. Subsequently he went to Baltimore, where he was associated first with Har Sinai, the oldest continuously Reform temple in the United States, and then with the Beth El Congregation.

1978 marks the 100th anniversary of the founding of the American Bar Association. Lawyers and their families from all 50 states and possessions, and sometimes members of the bar from foreign countries, attend this meeting.

Tisha B'Av

It was on the ninth day of the Jewish month of Av—on Tisha B'Av—that several great tragedies befell the Jewish People.

On Tisha B'Av in 586 B.C.E., the First Commonwealth of the Jewish People came to an end as the Babylonians destroyed the First Temple in Jerusalem. In 70 C.E., the Second Commonwealth ended as the Romans destroyed the Second Temple. Then, after an effort to regain Jewish independence from the Romans between the years 132 to 135 C.E., the rebellion of Bar Kochba was put down on Tisha B'Av at Betar, and with it all efforts to achieve Jewish independence for some 1800 years.

According to tradition, it was on Tisha B'Av that the Jews were condemned to wander in the desert for forty years after the Exodus from Egypt. On Tisha B'Av Jewish communities were destroyed in Europe during the Crusades, and the Talmud was burned publicly in Paris in 1242. And on Tisha B'Av in 1492, the Jews were expelled from Spain.

As a reaction to these events and others, Tisha B'Av has come to embody a response to the tragic in all of life, to the sufferings of individuals as well as the sufferings of the People. It is a response to the fact that the forces that build are always threatened by those which destroy; it is a reminder that there are those whose greatest victory will always be in destroying the House of God.

To these terrible events, what is the appropriate response? There are those who wish to forget evil and tragedy, who wish to deny that it is a part of life. That path is illusion, which seeks to overlook the problems of life. But there are those, too, who feel that only mourning is appropriate, that despair should fill all of life.

The Rabbis decided on a middle path when they created Tisha B'Av. It is a fixed time for mourning, for remembering the great loss of lives in Jewish history, for remembering the losses of Jewish sovereignty in the Land of Israel, and for remembering the evil and the chaos that constantly impinge upon life. Tisha B'Av is a symbolic ritual whereby we who live in peace and tranquility try not to forget and, for a day, relive some of the suffering present in Jewish life.

As a mourner or a prisoner lacks appetite, it is appropriate to fast. By minimizing the pleasures of civilization, by neglecting unnecessary washing, physical enjoyments and luxuries, one feels, even for a short while, the travail of victims of war. And candles burn in the synagogue, as they do in a house of mourning. The Book of Lamentations is read to its doleful melody to say once again: Jews, do not forget!

And on Tisha B'Av, say the Rabbis, when the Temple was destroyed, the Messiah was born. For to Jews destruction leads not to despair, but always to hope—hope which is not idle dreaming, but which is a mature response to feeling the power of chaos and suffering which so often dominate life. Tisha B'Av is a chance to channel such feelings and to say: Jews do not despair!

Tisha B'Av will be celebrated this year at the Park Avenue Synagogue on Saturday night, August 12, with services in the Sanctuary beginning at 8:15 P.M.

Time Passes Quickly For Busy Hauds

Nothing to do this summer? Tired of reading? watching T.V.? sunbathing? Then turn creative, and, in the process, help produce those craft items needed by the Women's Evening Group for the All-Synagogue Auction of craft items, made by congregants and their families, this coming winter.

The Auction, place and date still to be determined, will have as its auctioneer a "Very-Special-Person". So, turn your hobby into articles of note, donate them to the Auction, plan to come to the Auction to see what your fellow congregants have produced, and help the Synagogue in the process.

Have a productive summer !!

It is this close relationship which enables the Conservative Movement in this country to remain viable and dynamic.

Martin Leichtling Has A New Job: Secretary of Synagogue

To those of us whose affiliation with Park Avenue Synagogue does not go back thirty years, or more, it will be difficult to enter the Executive Director's Office and not see Martin Leichtling sitting behind that desk.

The warm smile, the bass voice, the "Well, and what can I do for you?" is the key to a working life of service to others, given graciously, and most willingly.

Martin Leichtling was appointed Executive Secretary in 1961. Before he assumed that position, he was the principal of the Religious School. It was during his tenure as principal that the three-day-a-week and Saturday morning classes were instituted.

A graduate of City College of New York, he received his Masters Degree in History from Columbia University. He taught history and economics at Seward Park High School and was Chairman of Programming there.

In his capacity as Executive Secretary, he was invited to speak, on several occasions, on the topic of synagogue administration at United Synagogue Biennial Conventions, as well as at the Metropolitan Region conventions of the United Synagogues of America.

At its twenty-fifth annual convention, held in Israel in 1972, the National Association of Synagogue Administrators elected him its president.

In 1973, Park Avenue Synagogue paid honor to him, in acknowledgment of his 25 years of service to the synagogue, as its Baal Maftir, during the celebration of Simhat Torah, and then went on to honor him again, as the Guest of Honor at the Jewish Theological Seminary dinner. The funds raised at that dinner were given to J.T.S. in his name.

Martin Leichtling is a husband, father, and grandfather. He speaks lovingly, and with pride, about his family, especially his grandchildren. And, if pressed, he will also show you the most recent pictures!

He has retired from the position of Executive Secretary, handing over the job to Andrew Braun. He now assumes, full time, the position of Secretary to the Synagogue, focusing

Thank You To Sisterhood Members

It is a well known fact that Sisterhood could not function without the dedication, interest, and help, physical as well as financial, of the women who are intimately concerned with the affairs of Sisterhood. "It would be difficult, if not impossible, to find enough words in the English language to adequately thank those women who have worked so hard this past year to make the efforts of Sisterhood successful", commented Lillian Bennet.

Mrs. Bennet has, herself, assumed the responsibility of another year as the President of Sisterhood. Through the pages of NEWS, she wishes to continue to acknowledge publicly those efforts of her Board.

Frances Berger (Mrs. Herman), one of the incoming vice-presidents, with Helen Hahn (Mrs. Isidore) and their committee, Ethel Boneparth (Mrs. Jack), Marguerite Rollin (Mrs. Paul), and Muriel Willins (Mrs. Harris) provided Kiddush for the congregation every Saturday morning after services

Fannie Beller (Mrs. Charles), Vice-President, chaired, with Vicki Wimpfheimer (Mrs. Seymour) and Mildred Finkel (Mrs. Saul), the Juliette Benton Lecture Series.

Bea Kaplan (Mrs. Louis I.) and Rosalie Friedman (Mrs. Sidney) were Gift Chairpeople for the annual Spring Luncheon.

Minnie Mittenthal (Mrs. Philip) was in charge of the theater party, "Golda".

Special thanks to Ann Rudell (Mrs. Richard) who most graciously gave of her time and knowledge to conduct an Open Meeting on the subject of "The Art of Arranging Flowers".

Winifred Siegal (Mrs. Albert) assumed the responsibility for the sale of the "Special Raffle", a trip to Las Vegas, at the annual Spring Luncheon.

Rhea Ruttenberg (Mrs. Nelson) was, and will continue to be, Publicity Chairperson for all functions of Sisterhood.

The special Kiddushim, for which Sisterhood is justly famous in our synagogue, have been supervised by Muriel Willins (Mrs. Harris) and her committee.

Mrs. Bennet wishes you all, those commended in these two issues of NEWS, a restful summer. May you continue to go "... from strength to strength. . . ."

He is the grandfather of Laura Ellen, who is now 18 months old. His father, a doctor, practiced medicine in Cleveland for nearly fifty years. His mother, now in her 80s, lives with his younger brother, also a doctor, in Encino, California. His twin brother is a lawyer practicing in Cleveland.

Mr. Braun looks to his association with Park Avenue Synagogue and with the Jewish community in New York with excitement over the opportunity to live and work in New York, in the center of creative Judaism, with the synagogue organization considered to be the pacesetter of the Conservative movement in the United States.
